

Total Resource Campaign Exceeds Goal

Total Resource Campaign co-chairs Mike Gilbert, Boone County National Bank and Keri Tipton, Bucket Media are pleased to announce that we have currently raised $496,651 for the Chamber – surpassing the initial campaign goal of $475,000. The success of this endeavor is due the wonderful volunteers of our Chamber and the support of our members.

Special thank you to our campaign vice chairs: Cara Christianson, Winter-Dent & Co.; Chuck “The Backscratcher” Everitt, Award Pet Supply; Valorie Livingston, Boys & Girls Club of Columbia; and Sherry Waddill, Boone County National Bank. They assisted their teams whenever possible and were always available for pep talks and encouragement.

Congratulations to our team captains who, not only helped sell during the campaign, but also worked hard to support and encourage their fellow team members, all while enjoying some friendly competition:

Craig Brumfield, The Callaway

Bank; Jill Cox, Boone County National Bank; Tom Dugan, KOMU 8; Bryan Ethridge, Commerce Bank, NA; Nancy Fay, Mary Kay Cosmetics; Bill Hervey, Landmark Bank; Alice Leeper, RE/

MAX Boone Realty; Erik Morse, Midwest CompuTech; Sidney Neate, ABC17 / FOX38 / MyZou32 / Stormtrack24/7; Cynthia Schreen, Zimmer Radio Group; Jocelyn Tipton, Bucket Media, Inc.; Lili Vianello, Visionworks Marketing & Communications; Anne Williams, Job Finders Employment Services.

During the campaign almost 100 volunteers were divided into 4 divisions and sold various products the Chamber has to offer including: new Chamber memberships, assigned membership renewals, Board of Advisor memberships, sponsorship opportunities, advertising and trades. Top sellers during the campaign will receive a trip to South Beach, Florida in January 2010.

The funds raised during the Total Resource Campaign are important to the Chamber because they enable the Chamber to continue to provide quality programming, networking opportunities, community and business advocacy for our city, county and state and allows us to maintain the criteria desired of a nationally recognized 5-Star Chamber of Commerce that our members have come to expect.
